Trace the patterns

The tracing practice section contains five rows of patterns. Each row begins with a solid line that forms a loop, followed by a dashed line that continues the pattern. The first row includes arrows indicating the direction of the stroke. The patterns are: a solid loop followed by a dashed line with arrows; a solid loop followed by five dashed loops; a solid loop followed by five dashed loops; a solid loop followed by five dashed loops; and six dashed loops. Each row concludes with a small cartoon illustration: a bird, a bee, a bee, a bee wearing glasses, and a bee.

A large rectangular box for handwriting practice. It is divided into three horizontal sections by a top solid line, a middle dashed line, and a bottom solid line. The first section on the left contains a solid lowercase letter 'b'. The second and third sections each contain a dashed lowercase letter 'b' for tracing. A small dot above each dashed 'b' indicates the starting point for the vertical stroke.
