

BAHRIA COLLEGE
ZAFAR CAMPUS ISLAMABAD
ONLINE CLASS ASSIGNMENT
LITTLE BY LITTLE ONE WALKS FAR
SOLUTION

Unit: 7

Class: X

Assignment Number: 08

Assignment Date: 15th June 2020.

INSTRUCTIONS: READ THE SLIDES CAREFULLY TO ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

- i. How is the life explained in the chapter?
Life is like a 'game' and all humans are its participants. The reality of life is that to earn a first place in the life, one needs to work hard and face very challenging competition courageously. Everyone faces challenges in life, but the experience of every individual is different. In short, life for everyone is a long bumpy ride with impending uncertainty
- ii. What element is present in the life a teenager?
A teenager's life has an element of uncertainty. The only difference is of situation, experience and the way of dealing with the issue.
- iii. How balanced curricular and co-curricular activities groom a student?
The aim of a good student is to get grades in his education. However, he is also aware of the fact that participation in extra curricula activities would groom him mentally and physically. Resultantly, his participation in academic and co-curricular activities train him to create a balanced approach towards things in life. As an all-round student, his performance is better in academic and practical life than those students who do not participate in extra curricular activities.
- iv. What are some of the achievements of the author of 'little by little one walks far'?
As a high school student, the author participated in extra curricular activities and received many awards which were Quaid-e-Azam badge in scouting, winner of who is who quiz program at district level, Academic Excellence Award while participating in inter district declamation and essay writing competition in 2011 and award for most encouraging student. He also got awards in the subject of Computer application, Geography and Advance Algebra and Trigonometry. He was a member of environmental awareness and hiking and outdoor club besides being Secretary reading and computer club.
- v. In which program did the author of 'little by little one walks far' participate?
The author participated in "Read with a friend" program along with other students in which he taught students from kindergarten to class five of a nearby elementary school.

- vi. What jobs did the author of 'little by little one walks far' do and was their impact on his life?
To understand the meaning of financial independence, problems associated with financial earning and responsibilities in life, the author worked during two summer vacations. His first job was at an English Language Center while his second job was at McDonalds. His most recent job was at D.K Academy. He also worked to support himself financially to pay his hostel dues.
Though the jobs had proven to be difficult for the author, but this made him aware of the problems faced in earning financially besides making him understand the meaning of being responsible. His experience would certainly help him become successful in his practical life.
- vii. What do you understand from the line Shoot for the moon and land amongst the stars?
The line means that we should set our goals high and work hard. Even if we fail, still we would get some good things in result.