

Demonstrative Pronoun

Q2. Rewrite the following sentences, replacing the demonstrative adjectives.

(a) This room is well-furnished.

This is a well-furnished room.

(b) These parcels are mine.

These are my parcels.

(c) Those students are rude.

Those are rude students.

(d) That dress is expensive.

That is an expensive dress.

(e) These lesson notes are useful.

These are useful lesson notes.

(f) This photograph of my cousin is recent.

This is my cousin's recent photograph.

~~to~~ ~~we~~ ~~go~~
he wants

(g) Those children's garments are imported.

Those are children's imported garments.

(h) That sports car is his.

That is his sports car.

(i) This flat is spacious.

This is a spacious flat.

(j) These prawns are fresh.

These are fresh prawns.

pg ②

WorkSheet of Lesson "3"

Topic: Pronoun, Personal, Possessive & Adjective.

D. Fill in each blank with a suitable possessive pronoun or adjective. Key is given in the end of it.

a) I feel hot. I am taking off _____ jacket.

b) This book belongs to her. It is _____.

c) I have mislaid _____ pen. May I borrow _____?

d) Thank you for inviting me to _____ party.

e) The dog wags _____ tail when it sees me.

f) The fault was _____ she hit the ball too high.

g) _____ brothers sleeps in a room next to mine. _____ is a bigger room than mine.

(h) As they did all the work, the credit is _____.

(i) We have contributed money to buy a dictionary for Sam.
old one is outdated.

(j) My uncle has bought a new house.
_____ design is unique.

* Use the key with first underline pronoun.

(my, hers, (my, yours), your, its, hers, (My - His), theirs, His, its)